Onderwerp Besluit

Geachte [redacted]

1. Verzoek

Bij schrijven van 14 juli 2021 heeft u, namens uw cliënt [redacted], met beroep op de Wet openbaarheid van bestuur verzocht om openbaarmaking van – samengevat - "alle documenten bij of onder u inzake externe financiering, sponsering [sic] en subsidieverstrekking van/aan de vakgroep belastingrecht (inclusief het Amsterdam Centre for Tax Law (ACTL), vanaf 1 januari 2010 tot heden".

U heeft daarbij specifiek verzocht om documenten betreffende de leerstoel van dhr. prof. dr. H. Vermeulen, dhr. prof. mr. dr. S.C.W. Douma, dhr. prof. dr. D.M. Weber en dhr. prof. dr. O.C.R. Marres. Ook heeft u aangegeven dat uw verzoek álle documenten omvat, waaronder rekeningafschriften en overeenkomsten. Daarnaast heeft uw verzoek betrekking op externe financiering, sponsoring en subsidieverstrekking vanuit derden, zoals advocatenkantoren, belangenverenigingen en beroepsverenigingen.

Bij schrijven van 11 augustus 2021, met kenmerk 2021cu0555, is de ontvangst van uw Wob-verzoek bevestigd. Bij e-mailbericht van 3 september 2021 is u gevraagd of u zou willen instemmen met een verdaging van de beslistermijn tot 29 oktober 2021. U heeft daar diezelfde dag telefonisch mee ingestemd. Op 26 oktober 2021 is u per e-mailbericht medegedeeld dat de beslistermijn van 29 oktober 2021 niet werd gehaald, in verband met het aantreffen van aanvullende documenten die aan uw wob-verzoek zouden kunnen voldoen. U heeft daarop telefonisch en per e-mail van 26 oktober 2021 aangegeven niet in te stemmen met een nadere verdaging en bij schrijven van 29 oktober 2021 heeft u het College in gebreke gesteld wegens het niet tijdig nemen van een beslissing op uw verzoek.

Naar aanleiding van uw verzoek zijn bij de betrokken partijen zienswijzen opgevraagd. Van een aantal derde-belanghebbenden is een schriftelijke zienswijze ontvangen. Deze zienswijzen zijn meegenomen in de belangenafweging.

2. Wettelijk kader

Op grond van artikel 3, eerste lid, van de Wob kan een ieder een verzoek om informatie neergelegd in documenten over een bestuurlijke aangelegenheid richten tot een bestuursorgaan of een onder verantwoordelijkheid van een bestuursorgaan werkzame instelling, dienst of bedrijf.

Ingevolge artikel 6, vijfde lid van de Wob, wordt de informatie verstrekt tegelijk met de bekendmaking van het besluit, tenzij naar verwachting een belanghebbende bezwaar daar tegen heeft, in welk geval de informatie niet eerder wordt verstrekt dan twee weken nadat de beslissing is bekendgemaakt.

Op grond van artikel 10, tweede lid, aanhef en onder e, van de Wob, blijft het verstrekken van informatie ingevolge deze wet achterwege voor zover het belang daarvan niet opweegt tegen het belang van de eerbiediging van de persoonlijke levenssfeer.

Op grond van artikel 10, tweede lid, aanhef en onder g, van de Wob, blijft het verstrekken van informatie ingevolge deze wet achterwege voor zover het belang daarvan niet opweegt tegen het belang van het voorkomen van onevenredige bevoordeling of benadeling van bij de aangelegenheid betrokken natuurlijke personen of rechtspersonen dan wel van derden.

3. Overwegingen

De Wob kent als hoofdregel dat overheidsinformatie openbaar is, tenzij er zwaarwegende redenen zijn die zich verzetten tegen openbaarmaking. De uitzonderingsgronden en beperkingen op deze regel zijn in de Wob neergelegd. U heeft – samengevat - verzocht om openbaarmaking van stukken die zien op de (externe) financiering van leerstoelen van en de sectie Belastingrecht van de Faculteit der Rechtsgeleerdheid van de Universiteit van Amsterdam, daaronder tevens begrepen het Amsterdam Centre for Tax Law.

Naar aanleiding van uw verzoek zijn, teneinde de gevraagde informatie en documenten te inventariseren en te beoordelen, de volgende zoekslagen gemaakt:
- de dossiers rond de aanstellingen van hoogleraren van de sectie Belastingrecht in de periode 2010-2021 zijn doorgenomen;
- er is geïnventariseerd welke bijeenkomsten en seminars er binnen of door ACTL zijn georganiseerd over de periode 2010-2021;
- in de projectadministratie van de sectie zijn de documenten geselecteerd die betrekking hebben op extern gefinancierde projecten van de sectie Belastingrecht;
- de totale financiële administratie (alle afzonderlijke transacties en omschrijvingen) van de sectie Belastingrecht over periode 2010 – 2021 is onderzocht, waarbij de facturen zijn opgevraagd uit het archief;
- alle ontvangsten in de financiële administratie die betrekking zouden kunnen hebben op sponsoring, externe financiering en subsidieverstrekking, zijn (handmatig) geselecteerd;
- in een aantal gevallen is navraag gedaan bij derden.

./. Beoordeling van het verzoek heeft geleid tot verschillende documenten die voor openbaarmaking in aanmerking komen. Deze documenten zijn opgenomen in een inventarislijst, die als bijlage A bij dit besluit is gevoegd. In de inventarislijst is per document opgenomen welke uitzonderingsgrond van toepassing is op de daarin weggelakte gegevens en passages. De corresponderende motivering treft u aan in dit besluit.

I. Documenten die reeds openbaar zijn en niet nogmaals openbaar worden gemaakt

De documenten 1 en 3 zijn reeds openbaargemaakt bij Wob-besluit 2021cu0512, welke op de website www.uva.nl/wob, is gepubliceerd.

Het document Research Program CPT project is eveneens openbaar en beschikbaar via: Research and Education - ACTL - University of Amsterdam (uva.nl). Dit document is onderdeel van de documenten 8 (bijlage C), 9 (bijlage C), 10 (bijlage C). Dit geldt tevens voor de bijlage bij document 14; de statuten zijn reeds openbaar en kunnen worden opgevraagd via de Kamer van Koophandel.

Nu de voornoemde documenten reeds openbaar zijn, kan niet nogmaals worden besloten tot openbaarmaking van deze documenten. De plicht tot openbaarmaking ingevolge de Wob heeft geen betrekking op informatie die reeds openbaar is (zie onder meer de uitspraak van de afdeling van 17 juni 2016, ECLI:NL:RVS:2015:1863). Ten aanzien van het document Research Program CPT is het College voorts van oordeel dat het geen meerwaarde heeft om het stuk meerdere malen als bijlage bij de verschillende documenten te verstrekken.

II. Documenten die deels openbaar worden gemaakt met inachtneming van artikel 10, eerste lid onder e, van de Wob en artikel 10, eerste lid, onder g, van de Wob

In alle documenten die (deels) openbaar worden gemaakt zijn de persoons- en contactgegevens, handtekeningen en rekeningnummers weggelakt voor zover dit gegevens betreffen van personen die vanuit hun functie niet in de openbaarheid treden. Door openbaarmaking van deze gegevens wordt de persoonlijke levenssfeer van de betreffende personen aangetast. Ten aanzien van deze gegevens dient het belang van de eerbiediging van de persoonlijke levenssfeer zwaarder te wegen dan het belang van de openbaarheid. Om die reden worden de betreffende gegevens niet openbaar gemaakt. Bovendien maakt het weglaten van bovengenoemde gegevens niet dat de verstrekte informatie inhoudelijk anders of onleesbaar wordt, terwijl openbaarmaking van deze gegevens zou leiden tot een onevenredige inbreuk op de persoonlijke levenssfeer van betrokkenen, nu deze personen verder geen publieke functie uitoefenen.

Voorts zijn uit de documenten alle (financiële) gegevens weggelakt die kunnen leiden tot inzicht in de omvang of duur van een aanstelling of benoeming, en inzicht in of berekening van de salariëring of het uurtarief van de betrokken personen of derden. Het is vaste jurisprudentie dat salarisgegevens onder de bescherming van de persoonlijke levenssfeer vallen, zie onder meer ECLI:NL:RVS:2014:3559.

Handtekeningen van personen die vanuit hun functie in de openbaarheid treden zijn eveneens weggelakt, nu de combinatie van (digitale) handtekening en naam gemakkelijk tot misbruik ervan zou kunnen leiden. BTW-nummers, klantnummers, rekeningnummers, factuurnummers en -kenmerken zijn eveneens weggelakt, nu openbaarmaking van deze gegevens in combinatie met de tenaamstelling van de facturen, tot misbruik van de betreffende gegevens en informatie zou kunnen leiden.

Openbaarmaking van de voornoemde informatie wordt op grond van artikel 10, eerste lid onder e, van de Wob en/of artikel 10, eerste lid, onder g van de Wob, geweigerd.

Voor zover uw verzoek ziet op de leerstoel van dhr. prof. dr. mr. H. Vermeulen merk ik ter toelichting op de openbaar gemaakte documenten op dat er vanaf 1 november 2012 sprake was van een door de Amsterdam School of Real Estate ingestelde bijzondere leerstoel (Internationale fiscale aspecten van collectieve (vastgoed)beleggingsinstellingen); deze is per 7 december 2015 omgezet in een gewone leerstoel binnen de Faculteit der Rechtsgeleerdheid, waarvan deels bezoldigd door de Stichting Amsterdam School of Real Estate. Met ingang van 1 januari 2018 is de benoeming van prof. Vermeulen gewijzigd in een geheel door de Faculteit der Rechtsgeleerdheid bezoldigde leerstoel. Vanaf dat moment was er geen sprake meer van een bezoldiging vanuit de Stichting Amsterdam School of Real Estate.

Ten aanzien van de leerstoel van dhr. prof. dr. D.M. Weber, geldt dat in de periode 2006-2016 sprake was van een door de Stichting Loyens & Loeff European (Tax) Law Support Fund gevestigde bijzondere leerstoel Europese Ondernemingsbelastingen, waaraan door deze stichting werd bijgedragen. In 2016 is deze leerstoel gewijzigd naar een gewone gesponsorde leerstoel, waaraan werd bijgedragen door de Stichting Loyens & Loeff European (Tax) Law Support Fund. Deze bijdrage is inmiddels beëindigd.

Voor wat betreft de facturen onder documentnummer 20 geldt dat de facturen aan Loyens & Loeff N.V. en Maisto E Associati, behoren bij het zogenoemde CPT project. Voor wat betreft de facturen onder nummer 22 acht het College van belang te benadrukken dat het gaat om facturen met betrekking tot sponsoring van verschillende seminars/conferenties.

III. Documenten niet aanwezig

Ten aanzien van uw verzoek om documenten met betrekking tot de leerstoelen van dhr. prof. mr. dr. S.C.W. Douma en dhr. prof. dr. O.C.R. Marres, geldt dat geen documenten aanwezig zijn die beantwoorden aan uw verzoek. Gelet hierop dient uw verzoek voor zover dit ziet op documenten met betrekking tot de leerstoelen van prof. mr. dr. S.C.W. Douma en dhr. prof. dr. O.C.R. Marres, te worden afgewezen.

4. Kopieerkosten

Conform het tweede lid van de Regeling kopieerkosten bij een verzoek op grond van de Wet openbaarheid van bestuur Universiteit van Amsterdam bedraagt de vergoeding voor veertien of meer kopieën: € 0,35 per kopie.

Dit Wob-besluit betreft het verstrekken van 153 kopieën, derhalve bedraagt de verschuldigde vergoeding € 53,55.

5. Bezwaar belanghebbenden

Telefonisch, op 3 september 2021, hebben wij u medegedeeld dat wij de zienswijzen van de betrokken partijen zouden opvragen. Een of meer van de betrokkenen zou mogelijk bezwaar kunnen hebben tegen openbaarmaking van de documenten. Derhalve zullen wij, op grond van artikel 6, vijfde lid van de Wob, de documenten twee weken na dagtekening van dit besluit verstrekken, zodat de belanghebbende(n) de mogelijkheid wordt geboden om bezwaar te maken.

Ons kenmerk

2021-150944

6. Besluit

Het College van Bestuur besluit:

- uw verzoek af te wijzen voor zover de gevraagde documenten reeds openbaar of niet aanwezig zijn;
- een verschuldigde vergoeding voor het verstrekken van kopieën vast te stellen van € 53,55;
- de documenten op grond van artikel 6, vijfde lid van de Wob, twee weken na dagtekening van dit besluit te verstrekken.

Geachte mevrouw [redacted]

Wij hebben met belangstelling kennis genomen van het structuurrapport en de profielschets voor de leerstoel Belastingheffing digitale economie (Taxation of the Digital Economy). Uit gesprekken met Daniël Smit hebben wij vernomen dat hij kandidaat is om deze leerstoel aan de Universiteit van Amsterdam te bekleden en tevens dat hij hier ook graag toe bereid is. Wij zijn eveneens van mening dat Daniël Smit een uitstekende kandidaat is om invulling te geven aan deze leerstoel.

In dat kader zijn we in beginsel bereid om ons te committeren aan de volgende uitgangspunten:

- Het ter invulling van bovengenoemde leerstoel via detachering beschikbaar stellen van Daniël Smit voor [redacted] fte;
- Naast deze beschikbaarstelling een jaarlijkse financiële bijdrage van € 25.000,-;
- Dit alles voor een periode van vijf jaar.

Uiteraard gelden bovengenoemde uitgangspunten uitsluitend onder de premisse dat en voor zolang Daniël Smit gedurende deze gehele periode in dienstbetrekking van Ernst & Young Belastingadviseurs LLP blijft en tevens de genoemde leerstoel blijft vervullen.

Een en ander zal in meer detail moeten worden uitgewerkt in een overeenkomst tussen beide partijen. Graag zien we van uw kant een eerste concept voor deze overeenkomst tegemoet.

We hebben verder begrepen dat er een Benoemingsadviescommissie (BAC) bestaat waarvoor we gevraagd worden twee kandidaten aan te leveren. Uiteraard zullen we dat doen zodra we meer informatie hebben over doelstelling, taken en verdere samenstelling van deze commissie.

Met vriendelijke groet,

3.6 In the event of any discrepancies between the various documents, the following order of priority applies: the Agreement, these General Terms and Conditions and the Research Plan. The document stated first takes precedence over the document stated last.

4. Conducting the Research and research integrity

4.1 In performing the Agreement, the UvA endeavours to deliver a Result that is useful to the Collaborative Partner (best-efforts obligation). The Research will be conducted in accordance with the principles of good scientific research, as set out in the latest versions of the guidelines on scientific practice issued by the Association of Universities in the Netherlands (VSNU) (the Netherlands Code of Conduct for Research Integrity) and the European Code of Conduct for Research Integrity.[1] This implies, among other things, that the Results and conclusions may not be influenced by the interests and wishes of collaborative partners, and that the UvA will adhere to the legal and university standards applicable to the authorship of scientific and academic publications.[2]

4.2 No use will be made of the option, stipulated in Standard 12b of Article 3.2 of the Netherlands Code of Conduct for Research Integrity, to withhold parts of the scientific research, including the research data, for a potential investigation into an alleged violation of research integrity.

4.7 The Collaborative Partner and the UvA will jointly ascertain whether dual use', misuse and/or a conflict of interests potentially exists regarding the Research or the Research Results, within the meaning of the current regulations and the literature in this area.[4] To the extent that any of the above issues exist, the Collaborative Partner and the UvA will comply with the latest version of the VSNU guidelines as well as the UvA's internal rules (relating, for example, to permission from an ethics committee). In the absence of VSNU guidelines, by analogy the Collaborative Partner and the UvA will comply with the principles of the latest version of the guidelines of the Flemish Universities.[5]

4.8 The nature, scope, time schedule and approach to the Research are determined by the Research Plan included in the Offer. While the UvA will endeavour to conduct the Research in accordance with the Research Plan, it cannot provide any guarantee whatsoever that the intended Result will be achieved. The UvA accepts no responsibility for any causes that delay or limit the implementation of the Research and are not attributable to the influence of the UvA.

4.9 The Collaborative Partner is obliged to provide the necessary data, information, materials, equipment or other goods in the agreed form, numbers and quality to the UvA and to render every assistance, to the extent necessary in order to conduct the Research in the proper manner. The UvA is entitled to suspend the Research conducted until the Collaborative Partner complies with this obligation.

4.10 The UvA supplies goods on the basis of the Incoterms Ex Works conditions drawn up by the International Chamber of Commerce. These conditions apply from the UvA's applicable place of business.

4.11 All the terms stated in the Offer and Research Plan are estimates. The UvA is not in default by the mere expiry of the term. If the UvA foresees that a term is likely to be exceeded substantially, the UvA will notify and discuss this with the Collaborative Partner.

4.12 The UvA is entitled to replace employees who perform Activities with other employees. The UvA is entitled to have the Agreement performed under its responsibility either in full or in part by third parties.

4.13 The Collaborative Partner and the UvA will keep each other informed of any particular matters that may arise in the course of performing the Agreement, which can reasonably be expected to be important to the other Party.

4.14 If the Activities relate to materials made available by the Collaborative Partner, the latter bears responsibility for the selection, representativeness, descriptions of codes and brand or product names, identification, date of sampling and other relevant information relating to the materials that will be examined.

4.15 The UvA will retain the materials that have been made available to the UvA in connection with performance of the Agreement or the remnants thereof, if reasonably possible, for a period of two weeks after the date on which the Results of these materials were reported or delivered to the Collaborative Partner. If the Collaborative Partner has failed to arrange for the collection or return of the materials referred to within this period, the UvA is free to take appropriate measures for the account of the Collaborative partner.

5. Reporting

5.1 The UvA will provide the Collaborative Partner with progress reports on the Activities in accordance with the Offer or the Research Plan. Unless agreed otherwise, Reports will be made in writing or electronically, at the UvA's discretion.

5.2 The Collaborative Partner is deemed to have accepted the Results and Reports, if the UvA has not received a written objection within four (4) weeks after they have been sent.

6. Costs and payment

6.1 If a 'target price' rather than a fixed price is stated in the Offer for the Research, the amount stated indicates no more than a no-obligation cost estimate and the amount to be paid will be determined by means of subsequent costing based on the rates

6.2 applicable at the UvA. The UvA is entitled to adjust the applicable prices if the period between the date of the Offer and the End Date amounts to one year or longer, in

6.3 which wages and/or prices have been adjusted.

6.4 The costs incurred by the UvA (out-of-pocket expenses) will be charged in full to the Collaborative Partner. These costs may comprise the costs of materials to be processed, rental costs and the costs of any third parties engaged.

6.5 All prices exclude VAT and other government-imposed levies unless explicitly stated otherwise. The UvA is entitled to pass on any adjustment of the VAT rate to the Collaborative Partner.

6.6 The UvA reserves the right to send interim invoices if this has been agreed between the Parties. The UvA can require advance payment if the Collaborative Partner's financial position gives reason to do so or if this has been agreed between the Parties.

6.7 If the advance payment is not made, the UvA is entitled to suspend the fulfilment of its obligations.

6.8 Payments must be made within thirty (30) days after the invoice date. Any reliance on setoff by the Collaborative Partner is excluded. If the Collaborative Partner fails to pay the amount owed within this term, it is in default without any notice of default being required. The UvA is entitled to charge statutory interest from the due date until the date on which the principal sum is paid in full, without prejudice to the further rights of the UvA. If the invoice amount is not paid or not paid in full, all the judicial and extrajudicial collection costs will be borne by the Collaborative Partner.

7. Confidentiality

7.1 The receiving Party will treat the Confidential Information from the disclosing Party as confidential and will not disclose it without the prior written permission of the disclosing Party, nor communicate it to third parties - who are not involved in the Project - nor use it for purposes other than the purpose for which it was received, unless disclosure is required by or pursuant to the law.

7.2 The Collaborative Partner and the UvA must ensure that their employees, advisers and other persons involved in the Project strictly observe the duty of confidentiality referred to in this article.

8. Intellectual property and publication

8.1 The UvA owns Results, unless this is explicitly agreed otherwise with the Collaborative Partner.

8.2 The UvA will make the Results available to the Collaborative Partner, who is entitled to make multiple copies of, to distribute and to use the Results within its own organisation for evaluation and non-commercial research purposes. Commercial use of the Results, including internal use leading to commercial gain, is permitted after additional agreements have been made with the UvA thereon.

8.3 As the provider of the Results, the UvA is entitled to publish or otherwise disclose the Results.

8.4 If the UvA intends to proceed to publish or disclose Project Results, the UvA will submit the intended publication no later than forty-five (45) days before the intended publication date to the Collaborative Partner (an 'Intended Publication'). The Collaborative Partner may lodge a written objection against publication within a period not exceeding thirty (30) days after the date of receipt of the Intended Publication in view of (1) safeguarding Intellectual Property Rights and (2) protecting Confidential

Information. The possibility of lodging a notice of objection will be used in a reasonable manner. If the Collaborative Partner fails to respond within a period of thirty (30) days after receipt of the Intended Publication, permission is deemed to have been granted.

8.5 In the event that the Collaborative Partner lodges an objection because it believes that the Intellectual Property Rights to the Project Results included in the Intended Publication must be protected, the UvA will postpone publication by no more than 180 days from the date of receipt of the Intended Publication, to safeguard protection by, for example, applying for a patent.
In the event that the Collaborative Partner lodges an objection because it believes that the Intended Publication contains Confidential Information, the Parties will seek a solution within a reasonable period (a maximum of sixty (60) days after receipt of the Intended Publication), in which the Confidential Information will be removed and the scientific quality of the publication remains guaranteed.
The Intended Publication may be published after the expiry of the above period(s). The Parties will work together to facilitate the timely submission, publication and defence of a thesis/final paper or doctoral thesis.

8.6 The UvA reserves the right to use the knowledge acquired from performing the activities for other purposes, to the extent that no Confidential Information is brought to the knowledge of third parties.

8.7 All material created by the UvA, such as questionnaires, reports and research reports are and remain the intellectual property of UvA. The material made available by the Collaborative Partner to the UvA is and remains the property of the Collaborative Partner.

8.8 The UvA is not obliged to investigate third-party intellectual property rights. Nor is the UvA obliged to investigate the possibility of applying for intellectual property rights. If

8.9 conducting investigations into intellectual property rights is explicitly agreed in the Agreement, the UvA accepts no responsibility whatsoever for their content and results.

8.10 Only the UvA is entitled to apply for intellectual property rights in its name and for its own account, including patents, plant breeders' rights, trademark rights and design rights.

8.11 The Collaborative Partner may only submit an application, in derogation from and as referred to in Article 8.9, after obtaining the prior written permission of the UvA, with due observance of the conditions to be agreed upon in writing. In that case, the Collaborative Partner will grant the UvA a licence, for no consideration, to use the Results.

8.12 The UvA and the Collaborative Partner will inform each other as soon as possible of the Results, which in their opinion warrant the submission of an application for intellectual property rights.

8.13 The UvA and the Collaborative Partner will render each other all the required assistance in submitting patent or other applications in accordance with the provisions in this article.

9. Liability

9.1 Neither the UvA nor the persons engaged in conducting the Research are liable for any damage arising from use or application of the Results by the Collaborative Partner.

9.2 The UvA is not liable for any damage suffered by the Collaborative Partner as a result of use of the Results by the Collaborative Partner, nor as a result of negative publicity, nor for lost sales, lost profit, reputational damage or loss of data and materials.

9.3 Any claims against employees and persons engaged by the UvA are excluded. Employees and persons engaged by the UvA may at any time invoke a third-party clause stipulated by them.

9.4 The UvA is only liable for damage arising directly from a failure attributable to the UvA to perform the obligations arising from this Project and is not liable for any consequential damage.

9.5 The UvA accepts no liability for damage arising from defects in goods supplied to the UvA, including software that the UvA has forwarded to the Collaborative Partner, unless and to the extent that the UvA can recover that damage from its supplier.

9.6 The UvA is not liable for any damage arising whatsoever because the UvA has proceeded on the basis of incorrect or incomplete data provided by the Collaborative Partner, unless it should have known that the data were incorrect or incomplete.

9.7 If the UvA is held liable by the Collaborative Partner, the UvA is only liable for no more than the maximum amounts paid by the Collaborative Partner (= financial interest) for the Research. If the duration of the Research conducted comprises multiple years, the financial interest calculated over the last full calendar year is taken as a basis. The ultimate liability will in any event never exceed the maximum amount of UvA' s liability insurance. The above limitations do not apply in the event of wilful act or gross negligence on the part of the UvA.

9.8 The Collaborative Partner indemnifies the UvA and all persons engaged by the UvA (including students) to conduct the Research against all claims from third-parties (arising from damage or losses suffered by such third parties), who are in any way connected to the activities performed by the UvA for the Collaborative Partner or arising from the use or the application of the Results.

9.9 The Collaborative Partner indemnifies the UvA against third-party claims arising from the use of goods or data the Collaborative Partner has made available to the UvA for the performance of the Agreement.

9.10 All claims of the Collaborative Partner for compensation lapse twelve (12) months after the activities to which these claims relate have been performed, unless the 9.11 Collaborative Partner has instituted legal proceedings against the UvA.

9.12 The foregoing limitations of liability do not apply to the extent that the liability is the result of wilful act or gross negligence on the part of the UvA.

10. Transferability of rights and obligations

10.1 The Collaborative Partner will not transfer the rights and obligations relating to the Project to a third party without the prior written permission of the UvA.

11. Termination and notice

11.1 If a Party fails to perform an obligation arising from the Agreement and performance has not become permanently impossible, the other Party will offer the defaulting Party a reasonable cure period by means of a written notice to the defaulting Party. If the defaulting Party is in default, the other Party is entitled to terminate the Agreement with immediate effect - without prejudice to the right to compensation - by means of a registered letter, unless the shortcoming, in view of its special nature or minor importance, does not justify termination and the resulting consequences. If the Agreement is validly terminated, all the amounts owed by the defaulting Party to the terminating Party will become due and payable immediately.

11.2 If and as soon as:

(a) the Collaborative Partner is declared bankrupt, or is granted a suspension of payments, or a petition for such measures is filed with the court, or is placed under administration, management or curatorship; or

b) the Collaborative Partner's company is wound up or ceases to operate;

the Collaborative Partner is deemed to be in default by operation of law. In that case, the UvA is entitled to suspend the performance of the Agreement with immediate effect or to terminate the Agreement in full or in part, without any notice of default or judicial intervention being required, at the UvA's discretion, without the UvA being obliged to pay any compensation, but without prejudice to its right to compensation for the damage resulting from the suspension or termination. In these cases, all amounts owed by the Collaborative Partner to the UvA become due and payable immediately.

11.3 In the event that force majeure, as described in Article 12, prevents the UvA from fulfilling its obligations and lasts for more than 90 days, both Parties have the right to terminate the Agreement without being liable to pay any compensation in such cases.

12. Force majeure

12.1 Force majeure on the part of the UvA is understood to mean: circumstances that prevent the performance of the Agreement and are not attributable to the UvA, irrespective of whether those circumstances were foreseen at the time at which the Agreement was concluded. The UvA's obligations will be suspended during force majeure.

12.2 The circumstances stated in Article 12.1 include: war circumstances, fire and other forms of destruction, business interruptions, strikes, government measures, a general lack of the goods and services necessary to fulfil the agreed obligation and unforeseeable stagnation at third parties, as well as the absence of UvA employees or persons engaged by the UvA due to illness and the withdrawal of persons, animals and plants used during the performance of the Agreement, on whom/which the UvA depends for the performance of the Agreement.

12.3 The UvA is also entitled to invoke force majeure if the circumstance preventing fulfilment or further fulfilment occurs after the UvA should have performed the obligations incumbent on the UvA.

12.4 If the UvA has already partially fulfilled its obligations, or can only partially fulfil its obligations when the force majeure situation arises, it is entitled to send a separate invoice for the part already performed or the part that can be performed. The Collaborative Partner is obliged to pay this invoice as a separate project. However, this does not apply if the part already performed or the part that can be performed has no independent value.

13. Continuing provisions after termination

13.1 Provisions, which by their nature and/or purport are intended to endure beyond the end date of the Research, continue to retain their effect thereafter. These provisions include the articles covering confidentiality, intellectual property and publication, liability, dispute resolution and applicable law.

14. Applicable law and disputes

14.1 This Agreement is governed by Dutch law.

14.2 Any disputes arising from this Agreement that cannot be resolved by mutual agreement, will be submitted to the competent court in Amsterdam.

15. Final provisions

15.1 If one or more of articles of these General Terms and Conditions are declared invalid by a court decision, the other provisions of these General Terms and Conditions will remain in full force and the UvA and the Collaborative Partner will enter into consultations in order to agree upon new provisions to replace the void or voided provisions, which new provisions will approach as closely as possible the purpose and purport of the void or voided provisions.

15.2 These General Terms and Conditions have been adopted by the UvA Executive Board and come into effect on October 15, 2019.These General Terms and Conditions are also published on the UvA's website.

15.3 These General Terms and Conditions have been translated into English. In the event of any discrepancies between the original Dutch text and the English translation, the Dutch text will prevail.

ANNEX B – RESEARCH PLAN

This Research Plan sets out the (1) Nature; (2) Standards; (3) Governance Structure; (4) Scope, (5) Approach/Outputs and (6) Declaration of Scientific Independence agreed between the Collaborative Partner and the UvA.

(1) NATURE

The research to be conducted as a consequence of this agreement is under the umbrella of the UvA research project "Designing the tax system for a cashless, platform-based and technology-driven society" (CPT Project).

As part of the project, the UvA will conduct high quality, strategic and applied theoretical research in a multi-disciplinary, collaborative (i.e. with external partners) and independent manner (i.e. the results and conclusions of the research may not be influenced by the interests and wishes of Collaborative Partners).

(2) STANDARDS

2.1. Research Integrity

The CPT project endorses the Netherlands Code of Conduct for Research Integrity of the Association of Universities in the Netherlands (VSNU) and the European Code of Conduct for Research Integrity of the All European Academies (the ALLEA Code). It endorses the principles of honesty, scrupulousness, transparency, independence and responsibility mentioned therein. The project also endorses the duties of care referred to in the Code of Conduct. The relevant rules and regulations can be found on the UvA website under About the UvA - Rules and regulations.

All Academic supervisors, coordinators and (partner) researchers involved in the CPT project will therefore be expected to be familiar with these principles and to act in accordance with them. In addition, these persons will be required to sign a Declaration of Scientific Independence before starting to conduct the Research agreed herein. All UvA-researchers joining the CPT project will be hired in accordance with the UvA rules (terms of employment).

2.2. Diversity and Inclusion

The CPT project endorses the diversity policies of the UvA established in UvA's Diversity Document.[6] The CPT project is committed to fostering, cultivating and preserving a culture of diversity, equity and inclusion in relation to both the individuals and the Collaborative Partners involved in this research initiative.

Regarding individuals, the CPT project promotes ethnic diversity and the equality and inclusion of people from all manner of social and cultural backgrounds, genders, faiths, sexual orientations and degrees of ability. The project shall form teams that are diverse in composition and foster the creation of a culture that makes optimal use of the different perspectives and opinions represented in such teams.

In relation to Collaborative Partners, the CPT project cultivates identical diversity policy by being opened to all type of external organizations and promoting potential partnerships with businesses, governments and NGOs from different regions, countries, sizes, cultures and industries.

(3) GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

The governance structure of the CPT project is divided into the following levels:

3.1. General Academic Supervisor

Focuses on policy decisions, strategic direction and the project vision - monthly contacts with the chair of the advisory board;

3.2. Academic Coordinator

Directs the effort and facilitate communications between the General Academic Supervisor, chair of the Advisory board, Academic Supervisors, Researchers and Committees. Supported by ACTL's secretary/management assistant.

3.3. Academic Supervisors

Responsible for the supervision of a specific part of the project (e.g. cashless, platform, technology, indirect taxation, taxpayers' rights, relationship with non-EU countries, etc.). Academic supervisors conduct research that falls within the CPT project and contribute to the different educational activities related to it. Academic supervisors report directly to the General Academic Supervisor.

3.4. Researchers

Conducting research and providing documentation and analysis. The different type of researchers involved in the CPT project are:

- UvA-Researchers – on payroll of the UvA: (full-professor (hoogleraar), associate-professor (Universitair hoofddocent), assistant-professor (Universitair docent); researcher (onderzoeker), etc
- Student Researchers (Bachelor, Master and Advanced LL.M)
- Partners CPT Researchers (on payroll of the Partner)

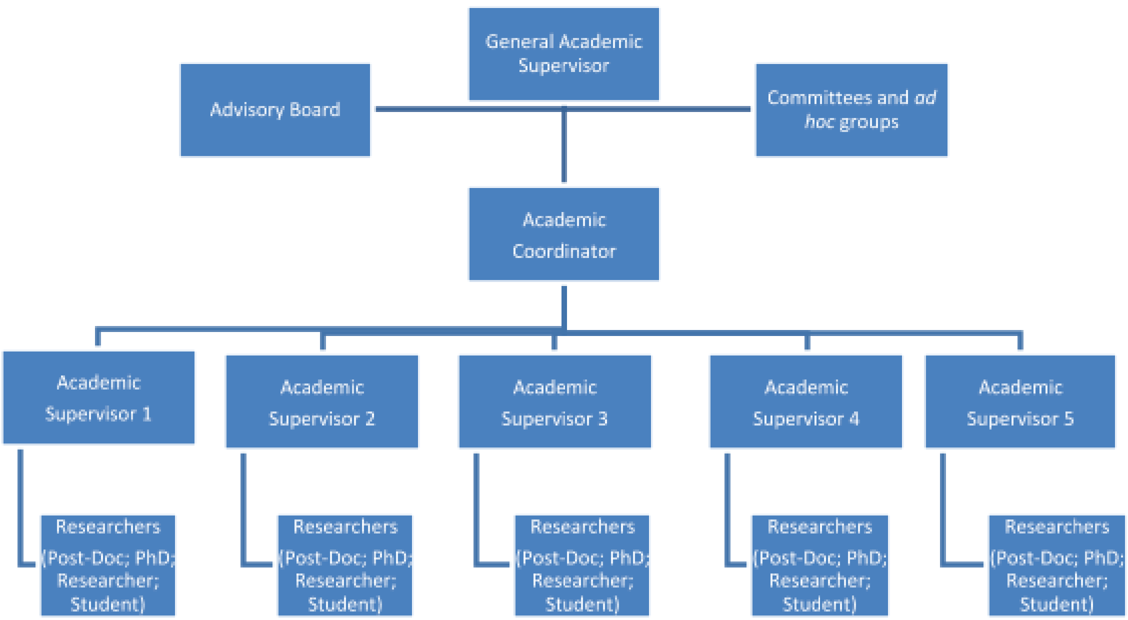
3.5. Advisory Board

Acts as the project's link to society. The advisory board is formed by decision-makers and leading academics from different fields of society. Its role is to identify upcoming issues for research and provide views on the project's general strategy and development. The advisory board meets 2 times per year.

3.6. Committees and ad hoc groups

Acts as the project's link to society in the form of subcommittees, working/brainstorming groups formed by representatives of the project's partners and other persons with interest in the project. They can suggest topics for research, give technical input on research questions and on potential recommendations for tax policy issues. However, the Results and conclusions of the Research may not be influenced by the interests and wishes of the committees and ad hoc groups. The suggestions and input of these bodies are non-binding to the General Academic Supervisor and they do not have competence over decisions regarding the research methods and outputs. The committees and ad hoc groups, as well as their members, may come in and out of the project at different phases.

CPT Project Governance Structure



NETFLIX

(4) SCOPE

The Research to be conducted as a consequence of this agreement will focus in general on how the tax system should be designed and structured for a society primarily based on Cashless Payment Methods, Online Platforms and Digital Technologies, such as artificial intelligence (AI) and blockchain. See Annex C for the CPT Project Research Program. In general, the research in the CPT project is divided in three blocks: Cashless, Online Platforms and Technology.

The Specific Topics to be researched under this agreement fall under the 'Online platform block'. Research will be conducted into the taxation of the digital economy, with special attention to developing countries (the African continent and South America).

Research will be conducted into specific taxes on streaming services, as well as other financial contributions levied from (online) media services providers (such as in the EU Audiovisual Media Services Directive (AVMSD)). The aim of the research is to map out the technical problems in levying such taxes and to arrive at key principles and recommendations for policy makers on how to set up a tax system for online media service providers. Special attention is paid to the position of developing countries, as the solutions proposed must also be practicable for these countries. At present, the international tax system is mainly modeled according to the views of the major economies in the world (Western Europe and the United States), which means that the interests and problems of emerging economies may be lost sight of. The UvA and the Collaborative Partner are committed to setting up joint projects that explicitly take the position of developing countries into account.

(5) APPROACH/OUTPUTS

The Assistant Professor(s)/Senior UvA Researcher(s) hired as a consequence of this agreement will conduct Research in the field of the taxation of the digital economy. This (these) person(s) will:

- Hold a PhD in Law and demonstrated academic and professional experience in areas relevant to the Research.
- Be primarily responsible for conducting the research in the field of the taxation of the digital economy, with special attention to developing countries (the African continent and South America).
- Develop specific research projects and carry out these research projects, in collaboration with researchers associated with the CPT project; among others, in collaboration with the partner, projects will be set up in which people from developing countries can participate.
- Be primarily responsible for contacts with society regarding the research and for forming brainstorm group(s) (ad hoc or permanent) with stakeholders (including the Collaborative Partner); In the brainstorm group, places will be reserved for people from the African continent and South America.

- Arrange for knowledge transfer to society:
    - o Develop tax law education in the field of research; Together with the Collaborative Partner (online) education is being developed to create practical and academic knowledge in developing countries about the taxation of the digital economy, especially among tax administrations and governments.
    - o Be responsible for the organization of (at least) one (afternoon) seminar on the research subject every year;
- Arrange for (direct) knowledge transfer to the partner: at least four times a year (i.e. quarterly), there will be a meeting with the Collaborative Partner to discuss the research progress and developments (e.g. through a presentation);
- Be available to participate in the Collaborative Partners' internal education programs in the field of research;
- Supervise students with their thesis research at the UvA undergraduate, master's and in the advanced LLM in international tax law;
- Supervise students in any internship at the Collaborative partner;
- Promote the visibility and impact of the research project and contribute to the social impact of the project.

In addition, the Research agreed between the Parties will be reflected in:

- The publication of papers in independent journals on the latest and expected developments regarding the taxation of the digital economy;
- The organization of webinars, seminars, workshops and conferences to discuss the aforementioned developments;
- The provision of education and training opportunities on the topic covered by this agreement, as noted above, together with the Collaborative Partner, (online) education will be developed to create practical and academic knowledge in developing countries about the taxation of the digital economy, especially among tax administrations and governments.

Finally, as a consequence of this agreement, the Parties agree that:

- The employees of the Collaborative Partner will be able to attend the education opportunities offered under the umbrella of the CPT project (i.e. the webinars, seminars, workshops and conferences) free of charge. These opportunities do not include the Adv. LL.M. in Int. Tax Law (UvA-IBFD) nor the Masters in Fiscaal Recht (UvA) academic programs.
- Other researchers of the CPT project (i.e. different from the one mentioned above as Assistant Professor(s)/Senior UvA Researcher(s)) can participate in the Collaborative Partners' internal education programs, as long as this is expressly authorized and accepted on a case-by-case basis by the CPT project General Supervisor and the relevant researcher.

(6) DECLARATION OF SCIENTIFIC INDEPENDENCE

In order to strengthen the independent nature of the Research to be conducted as a consequence of this contract, the Parties agree that all academic supervisors, coordinators and (partner) researchers involved in the CPT project will sign a Declaration of Scientific

Independence before starting to conduct the Research, which will expressly acknowledge that:

- The structure of the research shall not be geared towards producing the desired outcome for the Collaborative Partner of the CPT project.
- Remuneration and other tokens of appreciation shall never depend on the outcome or interpretation of the Research.
- The results of scientific research shall be published in independent journals irrespective of whether they are favourable to the Collaborative Partner.
- The CPT project (and website) will always be mentioned in CPT researchers publications.
- Relevant interests and/or advisory relations of the researcher(s) shall be cited in publications and other forms of disclosure.

2. Applicability

2.1 These General Terms and Conditions apply to all Offers submitted by - and all requests to - the UvA to conduct Research in collaboration with another party. The UvA hereby explicitly rejects the applicability of the General Terms and Conditions of the Collaborative Partner.

3. Formation of the Agreement

3.1 The Agreement is formed as a result of the Collaborative Partner's written confirmation of an Offer submitted by the UvA, or as a result of the UvA commencing the activities described in the Offer with the agreement of the Collaborative Partner.

3.3 Any amendments, supplements or additions only become binding after they have been agreed by the Parties in writing.

3.4 Unless stated otherwise, the UvA's Offer is without obligation and may always be revoked by the UvA. If not stated otherwise, the Offer is valid for thirty (30) days, calculated from the date of the Offer.

3.6 In the event of any discrepancies between the various documents, the following order of priority applies: the Agreement, these General Terms and Conditions and the Research Plan. The document stated first takes precedence over the document stated last.

4. Conducting the Research and research integrity

4.1 In performing the Agreement, the UvA endeavours to deliver a Result that is useful to the Collaborative Partner (best-efforts obligation). The Research will be conducted in accordance with the principles of good scientific research, as set out in the latest versions of the guidelines on scientific practice issued by the Association of Universities in the Netherlands (VSNU) (the Netherlands Code of Conduct for Research Integrity) and the European Code of Conduct for Research Integrity.[1] This implies, among other things, that the Results and conclusions may not be influenced by the interests and wishes of collaborative partners, and that the UvA will adhere to the legal and university standards applicable to the authorship of scientific and academic publications.[2]

4.2 No use will be made of the option, stipulated in Standard 12b of Article 3.2 of the Netherlands Code of Conduct for Research Integrity, to withhold parts of the scientific research, including the research data, for a potential investigation into an alleged violation of research integrity.

4.3 In the event that data are exchanged between the Collaborative Partner and the UvA, the Collaborative Partner and the UvA will comply with the statutory provisions and the latest internal regulations on the exchange of data.[3]

In accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the collaborative partner and the UvA will establish their respective GDPR compliance obligations before commencing the Research and, if necessary, will enter into a separate agreement, in which they will set out their mutual obligations regarding personal data in accordance with the GDPR.

4.5 The Collaborative Partner and the UvA will jointly ascertain whether dual use', misuse and/or a conflict of interests potentially exists regarding the Research or the Research Results, within the meaning of the current regulations and the literature in this area.[4] To the extent that any of the above issues exist, the Collaborative Partner and the UvA will comply with the latest version of the VSNU guidelines as well as the UvA's internal rules (relating, for example, to permission from an ethics committee). In the absence of VSNU guidelines, by analogy the Collaborative Partner and the UvA will comply with

4.6 The nature, scope, time schedule and approach to the Research are determined by the Research Plan included in the Offer. While the UvA will endeavour to conduct the Research in accordance with the Research Plan, it cannot provide any guarantee whatsoever that the intended Result will be achieved.

4.7 The Collaborative Partner is obliged to provide the necessary data, information, materials, equipment or other goods in the agreed form, numbers and quality to the UvA and to render every assistance, to the extent necessary in order to conduct the Research in the proper manner. The UvA is entitled to suspend the Research conducted until the Collaborative Partner complies with this obligation.

4.8 The UvA supplies goods on the basis of the Incoterms Ex Works conditions drawn up by the International Chamber of Commerce. These conditions apply from the UvA's applicable place of business.

4.9 All the terms stated in the Offer and Research Plan are estimates. The UvA is not in default by the mere expiry of the term. If the UvA foresees that a term is likely to be exceeded substantially, the UvA will notify and discuss this with the Collaborative Partner.

4.10 The UvA is entitled to replace employees who perform Activities with other employees. The UvA is entitled to have the Agreement performed under its responsibility either in full or in part by third parties.

4.11 The Collaborative Partner and the UvA will keep each other informed of any particular matters that may arise in the course of performing the Agreement, which can reasonably be expected to be important to the other Party.

4.12 If the Activities relate to materials made available by the Collaborative Partner, the latter bears responsibility for the selection, representativeness, descriptions of codes and brand or product names, identification, date of sampling and other relevant information relating to the materials that will be examined.

4.13 The UvA will retain the materials that have been made available to the UvA in connection with performance of the Agreement or the remnants thereof, if reasonably possible, for a period of two weeks after the date on which the Results of these materials were reported or delivered to the Collaborative Partner. If the Collaborative Partner has failed to arrange for the collection or return of the materials referred to within this period, the UvA is free to take appropriate measures for the account of the Collaborative partner.

5. Reporting

The UvA will provide the Collaborative Partner with progress reports on the Activities in accordance with the Offer or the Research Plan. Unless agreed otherwise, Reports will be made in writing or electronically, at the UvA's discretion.

5.2 The Collaborative Partner is deemed to have accepted the Results and Reports, if the UvA has not received a written objection within four (4) weeks after they have been sent.

6. Costs and payment

6.1 All prices exclude VAT and other government-imposed levies unless explicitly stated otherwise. The UvA is entitled to pass on any adjustment of the VAT rate to the Collaborative Partner.

6.2 Payments must be made within thirty (30) days after the invoice date. If the Collaborative Partner fails to pay the amount owed within this term, the UvA is entitled to charge statutory interest from the due date until the date on which the principal sum is paid in full, without prejudice to the further rights of the UvA. If the invoice amount is not paid or not paid in full, all the judicial and extrajudicial collection costs will be borne by the Collaborative Partner.

7. Confidentiality

7.1 The receiving Party will treat the Confidential Information from the disclosing Party as confidential and will not disclose it without the prior written permission of the disclosing Party, nor communicate it to third parties - who are not involved in the Project - nor use it for purposes other than the purpose for which it was received, unless disclosure is required by or pursuant to the law.

7.2 The Collaborative Partner and the UvA must ensure that their employees, advisers and other persons involved in the Project strictly observe the duty of confidentiality referred to in this article.

8. Intellectual property and publication

8.1 The UvA owns Results, unless this is explicitly agreed otherwise with the Collaborative Partner.

8.2 The UvA will make the Results available to the Collaborative Partner. The Collaborative Partner is entitled to make multiple copies, distribute and use the Results within its own organisation for evaluation and non-commercial research purposes. The UvA will grant the Collaborative Partner a non-exclusive licence (without the right to sub-license) for no consideration, to use the Results for its internal business purposes (thus excluding providing the Results to its clients). Any additional rights to the Results shall be subject to separately negotiated agreements. In the event that – under the fact and circumstances - it would be fair and/or reasonable that the Collaboration Partner should pay UvA any compensation for acquiring additional rights, such compensation shall be realistic and in conformity with the market financial compensation charged in a comparable transaction for acquiring such additional rights. This compensation shall be determined as a result of good faith, arms-length negotiations between the Parties. Items to be considered in the negotiations include, inter alia, the Invention Costs; the market value of the invention; the perspectives on Commercial Use (both costs and profits expected); the share of the Collaborative Partner in the production of the Results in question; the costs (to be) made by the Collaborative Partner for filing any possible patent application(s); the willingness of the Collaborative Partner to grant licences to the Party(s) with respect to Commercial Use of the Results to the benefit of society; the terms of which licences shall be FRAND[6] and taking into consideration the principles of Socially Responsible Licensing.[7]

8.3 As the provider of the Results, the UvA is entitled to publish or otherwise disclose the Results.

8.4 If the UvA intends to proceed to publish or disclose the Project Results, the UvA will submit the intended publication no later than forty-five (45) days before the intended publication date to the Collaborative Partner (an 'Intended Publication'). The Collaborative Partner may lodge a written objection against publication within a period not exceeding thirty (30) days after the date of receipt of the Intended Publication in view of (1) safeguarding Intellectual Property Rights and (2) protecting Confidential Information. The possibility of lodging a notice of objection will be used in a reasonable manner. If the Collaborative Partner fails to respond within a period of thirty (30) days after receipt of the Intended Publication, permission is deemed to have been granted.

8.5 In the event that the Collaborative Partner lodges an objection because it believes that the Intellectual Property Rights to the Project Results included in the Intended Publication must be protected, the UvA will postpone publication by no more than 180 days from the date of receipt of the Intended Publication, to safeguard protection by, for example, applying for a patent.

In the event that the Collaborative Partner lodges an objection because it believes that the Intended Publication contains Confidential Information, the Parties will seek a solution within a reasonable period (a maximum of sixty (60) days after receipt of the Intended Publication), in which the Confidential Information will be removed and the scientific quality of the publication remains guaranteed. The Intended Publication may be published after the expiry of the above period(s). The Parties will work together to facilitate the timely submission, publication and defence of a thesis/final paper or doctoral thesis.

6 Fair, reasonable and non-discriminatory.

8.6 The UvA reserves the right to use the knowledge acquired from performing the activities for other purposes, to the extent that no Confidential Information is brought to the knowledge of third parties.

8.7 All material created by the UvA, such as questionnaires, reports and research reports are and remain the intellectual property of UvA. The material made available by the Collaborative Partner to the UvA is and remains the property of the Collaborative Partner, including any (pre-existing) related intellectual property rights based on those materials. The Collaborative Partner's contribution related to the Technology component remains property of the Collaborative Partner, regardless if it is used by the UvA in the Research.

8.8 The UvA is not obliged to investigate the possibility of applying for intellectual property rights. If conducting investigations into intellectual property rights is explicitly agreed in the Agreement, the UvA accepts no responsibility whatsoever for their content and results.

8.9 Only the UvA is entitled to apply for intellectual property rights in its name and for its own account, including patents, plant breeders' rights, trademark rights and design rights.

8.10 The UvA and the Collaborative Partner will inform each other as soon as possible of the Results, which in their opinion warrant the submission of an application for intellectual property rights.

8.11 The UvA and the Collaborative Partner will render each other all the required assistance in submitting patent or other applications in accordance with the provisions in this article.

9. Liability

9.1 Neither the UvA nor the persons engaged in conducting the Research are liable for any damage arising from use or application of the Results by the Collaborative Partner.

9.2 The UvA is not liable for any damage suffered by the Collaborative Partner as a result of negative publicity, nor for lost sales, lost profit, reputational damage or loss of data and materials.

9.3 Any claims against employees and persons engaged by the UvA are excluded. Employees and persons engaged by the UvA may at any time invoke a third-party clause stipulated by them.

9.4 The UvA is only liable for damage arising directly from a failure attributable to the UvA to perform the obligations arising from this Project and is not liable for any consequential damage.

9.5 The UvA accepts no liability for damage arising from defects in goods supplied to the UvA, including software that the UvA has forwarded to the Collaborative Partner, unless and to the extent that the UvA can recover that damage from its supplier.

9.6 The UvA is not liable for any damage arising whatsoever because the UvA has proceeded on the basis of incorrect or incomplete data provided by the Collaborative Partner, unless it should have known that the data were incorrect or incomplete.

9.7 If the UvA is held liable by the Collaborative Partner, the UvA is only liable for no more than the maximum amounts paid by the Collaborative Partner (= financial interest) for the Research. If the duration of the Research conducted comprises multiple years, the financial interest calculated over the last full calendar year is taken as a basis. The ultimate liability will in any event never exceed the maximum amount of UvA' s liability insurance. The above limitations do not apply in the event of wilful act or gross negligence on the part of the UvA.

9.8 The Collaborative Partner indemnifies the UvA against third-party claims arising from the use of goods or data the Collaborative Partner has made available to the UvA for the performance of the Agreement.

9.9 All claims of the Collaborative Partner for compensation lapse twelve (12) months after the activities to which these claims relate have been performed, unless the Collaborative Partner has instituted legal proceedings against the UvA.

9.10 The foregoing limitations of liability do not apply to the extent that the liability is the result of wilful act or gross negligence on the part of the UvA.

9.11 The Collaborative Partner is only responsible for making the yearly financial contributions in a timely manner.

9.12 The UvA is responsible for paying all legally required deductions, contributions and advance contributions (social security and tax legislation contributions) with respect to its employees conducting the Research, including for the hired (an/a) Assistant Professor(s)/UvA Researcher(s), and indemnifies the Collaborative Partner against any claims and liability to pay tax and/or social security contributions with respect to said employees.

10. Transferability of rights and obligations

10.1 Both parties will not transfer the rights and obligations relating to the Project to a third party without the prior written permission of the other Party.

11. Termination and notice

11.1 If a Party fails to perform an obligation arising from the Agreement and performance has not become permanently impossible, the other Party will offer the defaulting Party a reasonable cure period by means of a written notice to the defaulting Party. If the defaulting Party is in default, the other Party is entitled to terminate the Agreement with immediate effect - without prejudice to the right to compensation - by means of a registered letter, unless the shortcoming, in view of its special nature or minor importance, does not justify termination and the resulting consequences. If the Agreement is validly terminated, all the amounts owed up until the date of the termination by the defaulting Party to the terminating Party will become due and payable immediately.

11.2 Each party may terminate this Agreement with immediate effect and without being obliged to pay any compensation, if the other party:

(a) is declared bankrupt, or is granted a suspension of payments, or a petition for such measures is filed with the court, or is placed under administration, management or curatorship; or

b) is wound up or ceased to operate.

11.3 In the event that force majeure, as described in Article 12, prevents the UvA from fulfilling its obligations and lasts for more than 90 days, both Parties have the right to terminate the Agreement without being liable to pay any compensation in such cases.

11.4 The Collaborative Partner may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to the UvA and without being obliged to pay any compensation if it reasonably determines that it can no longer be involved in or linked to the Project and the Research either in accordance with the applicable law or regulatory or professional obligations or for independence reasons, unless the parties have been able to properly amend this Agreement.

11.5 The Collaborative Partner may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to the UvA and without being obliged to pay any compensation, if the UvA in whatever way harms the Collaborative Partner's reputation and good name or would harm its reputation by its continued association with the UvA.

12. Force majeure

12.1 Force majeure on the part of the UvA is understood to mean: circumstances that prevent the performance of the Agreement and are not attributable to the UvA. UvA's obligations will be suspended during force majeure.

12.2 The circumstances stated in Article 12.1 include: war circumstances, fire and other forms of destruction, strikes, government measures.

12.4 If the UvA has already partially fulfilled its obligations, or can only partially fulfil its obligations when the force majeure situation arises, it is entitled to send a separate invoice for the part already performed or the part that can be performed, if given the circumstances that would be reasonable. The Collaborative Partner is obliged to pay this invoice as a separate project. However, this does not apply if the part already performed or the part that can be performed has no independent value.

13. Continuing provisions after termination

13.1 Provisions, which by their nature and/or purport are intended to endure beyond the end date of the Research, continue to retain their effect thereafter. These provisions include the articles covering confidentiality, intellectual property and publication, dispute resolution and applicable law.

14. Applicable law and disputes

14.1 This Agreement is governed by Dutch law.

14.2 Any disputes arising from this Agreement that cannot be resolved by mutual agreement, will be submitted to the competent court in Amsterdam.

15. Final provisions

15.1 If one or more of articles of these General Terms and Conditions are declared invalid by a court decision, the other provisions of these General Terms and Conditions will remain in full force and the UvA and the Collaborative Partner will enter into consultations in order to agree upon new provisions to replace the void or voided provisions. Such new provisions will approach as closely as possible the purpose and purport of the void or voided provisions.

ANNEX B – RESEARCH PLAN

This Research Plan sets out the (1) Nature; (2) Standards; (3) Governance Structure; (4) Scope; (5) Approach/Outputs; (6) Reporting and (7) Declaration of Scientific Independence agreed between the Collaborative Partner and the UvA.

(1) NATURE

The research to be conducted as a consequence of this agreement is under the umbrella of the UvA research project "Designing the tax system for a cashless, platform-based and technology-driven society" (CPT Project).

As part of the project, the UvA will conduct high quality, strategic and applied theoretical research in a multi-disciplinary, collaborative (i.e. with external partners) and independent manner (i.e. the results and conclusions of the research may not be influenced by the interests and wishes of Collaborative Partners).

(2) STANDARDS

2.1. Research Integrity

The CPT project endorses the Netherlands Code of Conduct for Research Integrity of the Association of Universities in the Netherlands (VSNU) and the European Code of Conduct for Research Integrity of the All European Academies (the ALLEA Code). It endorses the principles of honesty, scrupulousness, transparency, independence and responsibility mentioned therein. The project also endorses the duties of care referred to in the Code of Conduct. The relevant rules and regulations can be found on the UvA website under About the UvA - Rules and regulations.

All Academic supervisors, coordinators and (partner) researchers involved in the CPT project will therefore be expected to be familiar with these principles and to act in accordance with them. In addition, these persons will be required to sign a Declaration of Scientific Independence before starting to conduct the Research agreed herein. All UvA-researchers joining the CPT project will be hired in accordance with the UvA rules (terms of employment).

2.2. Diversity and Inclusion

The CPT project endorses the diversity policies of the UvA established in UvA's Diversity Document.[8] The CPT project is committed to fostering, cultivating and preserving a culture of diversity, equity and inclusion in relation to both the individuals and the Collaborative Partners involved in this research initiative.

Regarding individuals, the CPT project promotes ethnic diversity and the equality and inclusion of people from all manner of social and cultural backgrounds, genders, faiths, sexual orientations and degrees of ability. The project shall form teams that are diverse in composition and foster the creation of a culture that makes optimal use of the different perspectives and opinions represented in such teams.

In relation to Collaborative Partners, the CPT project cultivates identical diversity policy by being opened to all type of external organizations and promoting potential partnerships with businesses, governments and NGOs from different regions, countries, sizes, cultures and industries.

(3) GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

The governance structure of the CPT project is divided into the following levels:

3.1. General Academic Supervisor

Focuses on policy decisions, strategic direction and the project vision - monthly contacts with the chair of the advisory board;

3.2. Academic Coordinator

Directs the effort and facilitate communications between the General Academic Supervisor, chair of the Advisory board, Academic Supervisors, Researchers and Committees. Supported by ACTL's secretary/management assistant.

3.3. Academic Supervisors

Responsible for the supervision of a specific part of the project (e.g. cashless, platform, technology, indirect taxation, taxpayers' rights, relationship with non-EU countries, etc.). Academic supervisors conduct research that falls within the CPT project and contribute to the different educational activities related to it. Academic supervisors report directly to the General Academic Supervisor.

3.4. Researchers

Conducting research and providing documentation and analysis. The different type of researchers involved in the CPT project are:

- UvA-Researchers – on payroll of the UvA: (full-professor (hoogleraar), associate-professor (Universitair hoofddocent), assistant-professor (Universitair docent); researcher (onderzoeker), etc
- Student Researchers (Bachelor, Master and Advanced LL.M)
- Partners CPT Researchers (on payroll of the Partner)

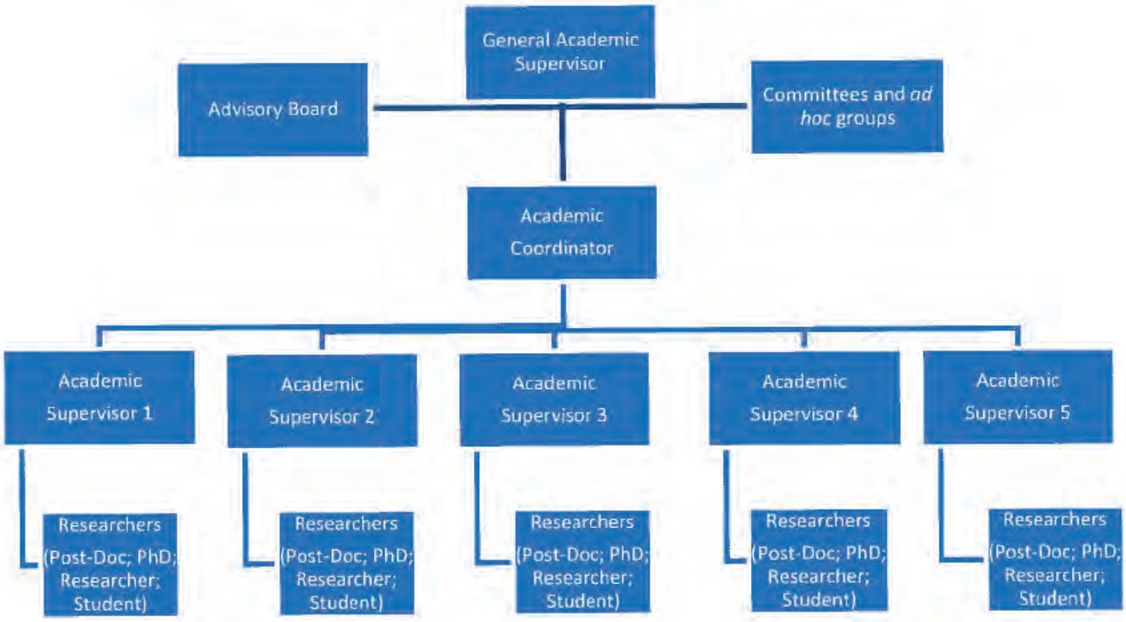
3.5. Advisory Board

Acts as the project's link to society. The advisory board is formed by decision-makers and leading academics from different fields of society. Its role is to identify upcoming issues for research and provide views on the project's general strategy and development. The advisory board meets 2 times per year.

3.6. Committees and ad hoc groups

Acts as the project's link to society in the form of subcommittees, working/brainstorming groups formed by representatives of the project's partners and other persons with interest in the project. They can suggest topics for research, give technical input on research questions and on potential recommendations for tax policy issues. However, the Results and conclusions of the Research may not be influenced by the interests and wishes of the committees and ad hoc groups. The suggestions and input of these bodies are non-binding to the General Academic Supervisors and they do not have competence over decisions regarding the research methods and outputs. The committees and ad hoc groups, as well as their members, may come in and out of the project at different phases.

CPT Project Governance Structure



(4) SCOPE

The Research to be conducted as a consequence of this agreement will focus in general on how the tax system should be designed and structured for a society primarily based on Cashless Payment Methods, Online Platforms and Digital Technologies, such as artificial intelligence (AI) and blockchain. See Annex C for the CPT Project Research Program. In general, the research in the CPT project is divided in three blocks: Cashless, Online Platforms and Technology.

The Specific Topics to be researched under this agreement fall under the 'Technology block' and include the following issues:

(i) How Blockchain, Distributed Ledger Technologies (DLT) in general and other complementary innovations could be used to improve existing and prospective tax systems;

(ii) How to address the challenges and opportunities raised by Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Automated Decision-Making Systems (ADM) in the field of taxation;

The aim of the proposed research collaboration is to determine how the aforementioned technologies could be used to solve the technical problems of current and prospective tax systems, as well as to define the key principles and recommendations that policymakers should follow when deploying these tools. This implies, inter alia, monitoring and anticipating global trends in the tax and technology field, as well as assessing how these trends and innovations could impact existing tax policies/systems and, especially, businesses' compliance.

(5) APPROACH/OUTPUTS

The Assistant Professor(s)/UvA Researcher(s) hired as a consequence of this agreement will conduct Research in the field of Tax and Technology with special attention to Blockchain and Artificial Intelligence (AI). This (these) person(s) will:

- Hold a PhD in Law and demonstrated academic and professional experience in areas relevant to the Research.
- Be primarily responsible for conducting the research in the field of Tax and Technology with special attention to Blockchain and Artificial Intelligence (AI).
- Develop specific research projects and carry out these research projects, in collaboration with researchers associated with the CPT project;
- Be primarily responsible for contacts with society regarding the research and for assembling brainstorm group(s) (ad hoc or permanent) with stakeholders (including the Collaborative Partner);
- Arrange for knowledge transfer to society:
    - o Develop tax law education in the field of research;
    - o Be responsible for the organization of (at least) one (afternoon) seminar on the research subject every year;
- Arrange for (direct) knowledge transfer to the partner: at least four times a year (i.e. quarterly), there will be a meeting with the Collaborative Partner to discuss the research progress and developments (e.g. through a presentation);
- Supervise students with their thesis research at the UvA undergraduate, master's and in the advanced LLM in International Tax Law;
- Supervise students in an eventual internship at the Collaborative Partner;
- Promote the visibility and impact of the CPT project and contribute to the social impact of this initiative.

In addition, the Research agreed between the Parties will be reflected in:

- The publication of papers in independent journals on the latest and expected developments regarding Tax and Technology with special attention to Blockchain and Artificial Intelligence (AI);
- The organization of webinars, seminars, workshops and conferences to discuss the aforementioned developments;

- The provision of education and training opportunities on the topic covered by this agreement.

(6) REPORTING

The Research Outputs (i.e. papers, seminars, education, etc.) arising as consequence of this agreement will be reported in the annual CPT report. The Collaborative Partner can always request interim information about the state of the research.

(7) DECLARATION OF SCIENTIFIC INDEPENDENCE

In order to strengthen the independent nature of the Research to be conducted as a consequence of this contract, the Parties agree that all academic supervisors, coordinators and (partner) researchers involved in the CPT project will sign a Declaration of Scientific Independence before starting to conduct the Research, which will expressly acknowledge that:

- The structure of the research shall not be geared towards producing the desired outcome for the Collaborative Partner of the CPT project.
- Remuneration and other tokens of appreciation shall never depend on the outcome or interpretation of the Research.
- The results of scientific research shall be published in independent journals irrespective of whether they are favourable to the Collaborative Partner.
- The CPT project (and website) will always be mentioned in CPT researchers publications.
- Relevant interests and/or advisory relations of the researcher(s) shall be cited in publications and other forms of disclosure.

3. Formation of the Agreement

3.1 The Agreement is formed as a result of the Collaborative Partner's written confirmation of an Offer submitted by the UvA, or as a result of the UvA commencing the activities described in the Offer with the agreement of the Collaborative Partner.

3.5 The Collaborative Partner may not use or allow other parties to use the knowledge, ideas, data or information contained in the Offer for any purposes other than to assess the Offer.

3.6 In the event of any discrepancies between the various documents, the following order of priority applies: the Agreement, these General Terms and Conditions and the Research Plan. The document stated first takes precedence over the document stated last.

4. Conducting the Research and research integrity

4.1 In performing the Agreement, the UvA endeavours to deliver a Result that is useful to the Collaborative Partner (best-efforts obligation). The Research will be conducted in accordance with the principles of good scientific research, as set out in the latest versions of the guidelines on scientific practice issued by the Association of Universities in the Netherlands (VSNU) (the Netherlands Code of Conduct for Research Integrity) and the European Code of Conduct for Research Integrity.[1] This implies, among other things, that the Results and conclusions may not be influenced by the interests and wishes of collaborative partners, and that the UvA will adhere to the legal and university standards applicable to the authorship of scientific and academic publications.[2]

4.2 No use will be made of the option, stipulated in Standard 12b of Article 3.2 of the Netherlands Code of Conduct for Research Integrity, to withhold parts of the scientific research, including the research data, for a potential investigation into an alleged violation of research integrity.

4.3 In the event that data are exchanged between the Collaborative Partner and the UvA, the Collaborative Partner and the UvA will comply with the statutory provisions and the latest internal regulations on the exchange of data.[3]

4.4 In the event personal data are being used in the Research, the Collaborative Partner and the UvA will comply with the latest version of the VSNU guidelines (the Code of Conduct for the Use of Personal Data in Scientific Research) and the latest internal regulations on the use of personal data. In accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the collaborative partner and the UvA will establish their respective GDPR compliance obligations before commencing the Research and, if necessary, will enter into a separate agreement, in which they will set out their mutual obligations regarding personal data in accordance with the GDPR.

4.5 The Collaborative Partner and the UvA will jointly ascertain whether dual use', misuse and/or a conflict of interests potentially exists regarding the Research or the Research Results, within the meaning of the current regulations and the literature in this area.[4] To the extent that any of the above issues exist, the Collaborative Partner and the UvA will comply with the latest version of the VSNU guidelines as well as the UvA's internal rules (relating, for example, to permission from an ethics committee). In the absence of VSNU guidelines, by analogy the Collaborative Partner and the UvA will comply with

4.6 The nature, scope, time schedule and approach to the Research are determined by the Research Plan included in the Offer. While the UvA will endeavour to conduct the Research in accordance with the Research Plan, it cannot provide any guarantee whatsoever that the intended Result will be achieved. The UvA accepts no responsibility for any causes that delay or limit the implementation of the Research and are not attributable to the influence of the UvA.

4.7 The Collaborative Partner is obliged to provide the necessary data, information, materials, equipment or other goods in the agreed form, numbers and quality to the UvA and to render every assistance, to the extent necessary in order to conduct the Research in the proper manner. The UvA is entitled to suspend the Research conducted until the Collaborative Partner complies with this obligation.

4.8 The UvA supplies goods on the basis of the Incoterms Ex Works conditions drawn up by the International Chamber of Commerce. These conditions apply from the UvA's applicable place of business.

4.9 All the terms stated in the Offer and Research Plan are estimates. The UvA is not in default by the mere expiry of the term. If the UvA foresees that a term is likely to be exceeded substantially, the UvA will notify and discuss this with the Collaborative Partner.

4.10 The UvA is entitled to replace employees who perform Activities with other employees. The UvA is entitled to have the Agreement performed under its responsibility either in full or in part by third parties.

4.11 The Collaborative Partner and the UvA will keep each other informed of any particular matters that may arise in the course of performing the Agreement, which can reasonably be expected to be important to the other Party.

4.12 If the Activities relate to materials made available by the Collaborative Partner, the latter bears responsibility for the selection, representativeness, descriptions of codes and brand or product names, identification, date of sampling and other relevant information relating to the materials that will be examined.

4.13 The UvA will retain the materials that have been made available to the UvA in connection with performance of the Agreement or the remnants thereof, if reasonably possible, for a period of two weeks after the date on which the Results of these materials were reported or delivered to the Collaborative Partner. If the Collaborative Partner has failed to arrange for the collection or return of the materials referred to within this period, the UvA is free to take appropriate measures for the account of the Collaborative partner.

5. Reporting

[5] http://www.vlir.be/richtlijnen-voor-onderzoekers-over-dual-use-en--misuse-van-onderzoek.

5.1 The UvA will provide the Collaborative Partner with progress reports on the Activities in accordance with the Offer or the Research Plan. Unless agreed otherwise, Reports will be made in writing or electronically, at the UvA's discretion.

5.2 The Collaborative Partner is deemed to have accepted the Results and Reports, if the UvA has not received a written objection within four (4) weeks after they have been sent.

6. Costs and payment

6.1 If a 'target price' rather than a fixed price is stated in the Offer for the Research, the amount stated indicates no more than a no-obligation cost estimate and the amount to be paid will be determined by means of subsequent costing based on the rates applicable at the UvA. The UvA is entitled to adjust the applicable prices if the period between the date of the Offer and the End Date amounts to one year or longer, in which wages and/or prices have been adjusted.

6.2 The costs incurred by the UvA (out-of-pocket expenses) will be charged in full to the Collaborative Partner. These costs may comprise the costs of materials to be processed, rental costs and the costs of any third parties engaged.

6.3 All prices exclude VAT and other government-imposed levies unless explicitly stated otherwise. The UvA is entitled to pass on any adjustment of the VAT rate to the Collaborative Partner.

6.4 The UvA reserves the right to send interim invoices if this has been agreed between the Parties. The UvA can require advance payment if the Collaborative Partner's financial position gives reason to do so or if this has been agreed between the Parties. If the advance payment is not made, the UvA is entitled to suspend the fulfilment of its obligations.

6.5 Payments must be made within thirty (30) days after the invoice date. Any reliance on setoff by the Collaborative Partner is excluded. If the Collaborative Partner fails to pay the amount owed within this term, it is in default without any notice of default being required. The UvA is entitled to charge statutory interest from the due date until the date on which the principal sum is paid in full, without prejudice to the further rights of the UvA. If the invoice amount is not paid or not paid in full, all the judicial and extrajudicial collection costs will be borne by the Collaborative Partner.

7. Confidentiality

7.1 The receiving Party will treat the Confidential Information from the disclosing Party as confidential and will not disclose it without the prior written permission of the disclosing Party, nor communicate it to third parties - who are not involved in the Project - nor use it for purposes other than the purpose for which it was received, unless disclosure is required by or pursuant to the law.

7.2 The Collaborative Partner and the UvA must ensure that their employees, advisers and other persons involved in the Project strictly observe the duty of confidentiality referred to in this article.

8. Intellectual property and publication

8.1 The UvA owns Results, unless this is explicitly agreed otherwise with the Collaborative Partner.

8.2 The UvA will make the Results available to the Collaborative Partner, who is entitled to make multiple copies of, to distribute and to use the Results within its own organisation for evaluation and non-commercial research purposes. Commercial use of the Results, including internal use leading to commercial gain, is permitted after additional agreements have been made with the UvA thereon.

8.3 As the provider of the Results, the UvA is entitled to publish or otherwise disclose the Results.

8.4 If the UvA intends to proceed to publish or disclose Project Results, the UvA will submit the intended publication no later than forty-five (45) days before the intended publication date to the Collaborative Partner (an 'Intended Publication'). The Collaborative Partner may lodge a written objection against publication within a period not exceeding thirty (30) days after the date of receipt of the Intended Publication in view of (1) safeguarding Intellectual Property Rights and (2) protecting Confidential Information. The possibility of lodging a notice of objection will be used in a reasonable manner. If the Collaborative Partner fails to respond within a period of thirty (30) days after receipt of the Intended Publication, permission is deemed to have been granted.

8.5 In the event that the Collaborative Partner lodges an objection because it believes that the Intellectual Property Rights to the Project Results included in the Intended Publication must be protected, the UvA will postpone publication by no more than 180 days from the date of receipt of the Intended Publication, to safeguard protection by, for example, applying for a patent.
In the event that the Collaborative Partner lodges an objection because it believes that the Intended Publication contains Confidential Information, the Parties will seek a solution within a reasonable period (a maximum of sixty (60) days after receipt of the Intended Publication), in which the Confidential Information will be removed and the scientific quality of the publication remains guaranteed.
The Intended Publication may be published after the expiry of the above period(s). The Parties will work together to facilitate the timely submission, publication and defence of a thesis/final paper or doctoral thesis.

8.6 The UvA reserves the right to use the knowledge acquired from performing the activities for other purposes, to the extent that no Confidential Information is brought to the knowledge of third parties.

8.7 All material created by the UvA, such as questionnaires, reports and research reports are and remain the intellectual property of UvA. The material made available by the Collaborative Partner to the UvA is and remains the property of the Collaborative Partner.

8.8 The UvA is not obliged to investigate third-party intellectual property rights. Nor is the UvA obliged to investigate the possibility of applying for intellectual property rights. If conducting investigations into intellectual property rights is explicitly agreed in the Agreement, the UvA accepts no responsibility whatsoever for their content and results.

8.9 Only the UvA is entitled to apply for intellectual property rights in its name and for its own account, including patents, plant breeders' rights, trademark rights and design rights.

8.10 The Collaborative Partner may only submit an application, in derogation from and as referred to in Article 8.9, after obtaining the prior written permission of the UvA, with due observance of the conditions to be agreed upon in writing. In that case, the Collaborative Partner will grant the UvA a licence, for no consideration, to use the Results.

8.11 The UvA and the Collaborative Partner will inform each other as soon as possible of the Results, which in their opinion warrant the submission of an application for intellectual property rights.

8.12 The UvA and the Collaborative Partner will render each other all the required assistance in submitting patent or other applications in accordance with the provisions in this article.

9. Liability

9.1 Neither the UvA nor the persons engaged in conducting the Research are liable for any damage arising from use or application of the Results by the Collaborative Partner.

9.2 The UvA is not liable for any damage suffered by the Collaborative Partner as a result of use of the Results by the Collaborative Partner, nor as a result of negative publicity, nor for lost sales, lost profit, reputational damage or loss of data and materials.

9.3 Any claims against employees and persons engaged by the UvA are excluded. Employees and persons engaged by the UvA may at any time invoke a third-party clause stipulated by them.

9.4 The UvA is only liable for damage arising directly from a failure attributable to the UvA to perform the obligations arising from this Project and is not liable for any consequential damage.

9.5 The UvA accepts no liability for damage arising from defects in goods supplied to the UvA, including software that the UvA has forwarded to the Collaborative Partner, unless and to the extent that the UvA can recover that damage from its supplier.

9.6 The UvA is not liable for any damage arising whatsoever because the UvA has proceeded on the basis of incorrect or incomplete data provided by the Collaborative Partner, unless it should have known that the data were incorrect or incomplete.

9.7 If the UvA is held liable by the Collaborative Partner, the UvA is only liable for no more than the maximum amounts paid by the Collaborative Partner (= financial interest) for the Research. If the duration of the Research conducted comprises multiple years, the financial interest calculated over the last full calendar year is taken as a basis. The ultimate liability will in any event never exceed the maximum amount of UvA' s liability insurance. The above limitations do not apply in the event of wilful act or gross negligence on the part of the UvA.

9.8 The Collaborative Partner indemnifies the UvA and all persons engaged by the UvA (including students) to conduct the Research against all claims from third-parties (arising from damage or losses suffered by such third parties), who are in any way connected to the activities performed by the UvA for the Collaborative Partner or arising from the use or the application of the Results.

9.9 The Collaborative Partner indemnifies the UvA against third-party claims arising from the use of goods or data the Collaborative Partner has made available to the UvA for the performance of the Agreement.

9.10 All claims of the Collaborative Partner for compensation lapse twelve (12) months after the activities to which these claims relate have been performed, unless the Collaborative Partner has instituted legal proceedings against the UvA.

9.11 The foregoing limitations of liability do not apply to the extent that the liability is the result of wilful act or gross negligence on the part of the UvA.

10. Transferability of rights and obligations

10.1 The Collaborative Partner will not transfer the rights and obligations relating to the Project to a third party without the prior written permission of the UvA.

11. Termination and notice

11.1 If a Party fails to perform an obligation arising from the Agreement and performance has not become permanently impossible, the other Party will offer the defaulting Party a reasonable cure period by means of a written notice to the defaulting Party. If the defaulting Party is in default, the other Party is entitled to terminate the Agreement with immediate effect - without prejudice to the right to compensation - by means of a registered letter, unless the shortcoming, in view of its special nature or minor importance, does not justify termination and the resulting consequences. If the Agreement is validly terminated, all the amounts owed by the defaulting Party to the terminating Party will become due and payable immediately.

11.2 If and as soon as:

(a) the Collaborative Partner is declared bankrupt, or is granted a suspension of payments, or a petition for such measures is filed with the court, or is placed under administration, management or curatorship; or

b) the Collaborative Partner's company is wound up or ceases to operate;

the Collaborative Partner is deemed to be in default by operation of law. In that case, the UvA is entitled to suspend the performance of the Agreement with immediate effect or to terminate the Agreement in full or in part, without any notice of default or judicial intervention being required, at the UvA's discretion, without the UvA being obliged to pay any compensation, but without prejudice to its right to compensation for the damage resulting from the suspension or termination. In these cases, all amounts owed by the Collaborative Partner to the UvA become due and payable immediately.

11.3 In the event that force majeure, as described in Article 12, prevents the UvA from fulfilling its obligations and lasts for more than 90 days, both Parties have the right to terminate the Agreement without being liable to pay any compensation in such cases.

12. Force majeure

12.1 Force majeure on the part of the UvA is understood to mean: circumstances that prevent the performance of the Agreement and are not attributable to the UvA, irrespective of whether those circumstances were foreseen at the time at which the Agreement was concluded. The UvA's obligations will be suspended during force majeure.

12.2 The circumstances stated in Article 12.1 include: war circumstances, fire and other forms of destruction, business interruptions, strikes, government measures, a general lack of the goods and services necessary to fulfil the agreed obligation and unforeseeable stagnation at third parties, as well as the absence of UvA employees or persons engaged by the UvA due to illness and the withdrawal of persons, animals and plants used during the performance of the Agreement, on whom/which the UvA depends for the performance of the Agreement.

12.3 The UvA is also entitled to invoke force majeure if the circumstance preventing fulfilment or further fulfilment occurs after the UvA should have performed the obligations incumbent on the UvA.

12.4 If the UvA has already partially fulfilled its obligations, or can only partially fulfil its obligations when the force majeure situation arises, it is entitled to send a separate invoice for the part already performed or the part that can be performed. The Collaborative Partner is obliged to pay this invoice as a separate project. However, this does not apply if the part already performed or the part that can be performed has no independent value.

13. Continuing provisions after termination

13.1 Provisions, which by their nature and/or purport are intended to endure beyond the end date of the Research, continue to retain their effect thereafter. These provisions include the articles covering confidentiality, intellectual property and publication, liability, dispute resolution and applicable law.

15.2 These General Terms and Conditions have been adopted by the UvA Executive Board and come into effect on October 15, 2019.These General Terms and Conditions are also published on the UvA's website.

ANNEX B – RESEARCH PLAN

This Research Plan sets out the (1) Nature; (2) Standards; (3) Governance Structure; (4) Scope and (5) Declaration of Scientific Independence agreed between the Collaborative Partner and the UvA.

(1) NATURE

The research to be conducted as a consequence of this agreement is under the umbrella of the UvA research project "Designing the tax system for a cashless, platform-based and technology-driven society" (CPT Project).

As part of such project, the UvA will conduct high quality, strategic and applied theoretical research in a multi-disciplinary, collaborative (i.e. with external partners) and independent manner (i.e. the results and conclusions of the research may not be influenced by the interests and wishes of Collaborative Partners).

(2) STANDARDS

2.1. Research Integrity

The CPT project endorses the Netherlands Code of Conduct for Research Integrity of the Association of Universities in the Netherlands (VSNU) and the European Code of Conduct for Research Integrity of the All European Academies (the ALLEA Code). It endorses the principles of honesty, scrupulousness, transparency, independence and responsibility mentioned therein. The project also endorses the duties of care referred to in the Code of Conduct. The relevant rules and regulations can be found on the UvA website under About the UvA - Rules and regulations

All Academic supervisors, coordinators and (partner) researchers involved in the CPT project will therefore be expected to be familiar with these principles and to act in accordance with them. In addition, these persons will be required to sign a Declaration of Scientific Independence before starting to conduct the Research agreed herein. All UvA-researchers joining the CPT project will be hired in accordance with the UvA rules (terms of employment).

2.2. Diversity and Inclusion

The CPT project endorses the diversity policies of the UvA established in UvA's Diversity Document.[6] The CPT project is committed to fostering, cultivating and preserving a culture of diversity, equity and inclusion in relation to both the individuals and the Collaborative Partners involved in this research initiative.

Regarding individuals, the CPT project promotes ethnic diversity and the equality and inclusion of people from all manner of social and cultural backgrounds, genders, faiths, sexual orientations and degrees of ability. The project shall form teams that are diverse in composition and foster the creation of a culture that makes optimal use of the different perspectives and opinions represented in such teams.

[6] See UvA's Diversity Document at https://www.uva.nl/binaries/content/assets/uva/en/about-the-uva/uva-profile/diversity/uva-diversity-document-020919.pdf

In relation to Collaborative Partners, the CPT project cultivates identical diversity policy by being opened to all type of external organizations and promoting potential partnerships with businesses, governments and NGOs from different regions, countries, sizes, cultures and industries.

(3) GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

The governance structure of the CPT project is divided into the following levels:

3.1. General Academic Supervisor

Focuses on policy decisions, strategic direction and the project vision - monthly contacts with the chair of the advisory board;

3.2. Academic Coordinator

Directs the effort and facilitate communications between the General Academic Supervisor, chair of the Advisory board, Academic Supervisors, Researchers and Committees. Supported by ACTL's secretary/management assistant.

3.3. Academic Supervisors

Responsible for the supervision of a specific part of the project (e.g. cashless, platform, technology, indirect taxation, taxpayers' rights, relationship with non-EU countries, etc.). Academic supervisors conduct research that falls within the CPT project and contribute to the different educational activities related to it. Academic supervisors report directly to the General Academic Supervisor.

3.4. Researchers

Conducting research and providing documentation and analysis. The different type of researchers involved in the CPT project are:

- UvA-Researchers – on payroll of the UvA: (full-professor (hoogleraar), associate-professor (Universitair hoofddocent), assistant-professor (Universitair docent); researcher (onderzoeker), etc
- Student Researchers (Bachelor, Master and Advanced LL.M)
- Partners CPT Researchers (on payroll of the Partner)

3.5. Advisory Board

Acts as the project's link to society. The advisory board is formed by decision-makers and leading academics from different fields of society. Its role is to identify upcoming issues for research and provide views on the project's general strategy and development. The advisory board meets 2 times per year.

3.6. Committees and ad hoc groups

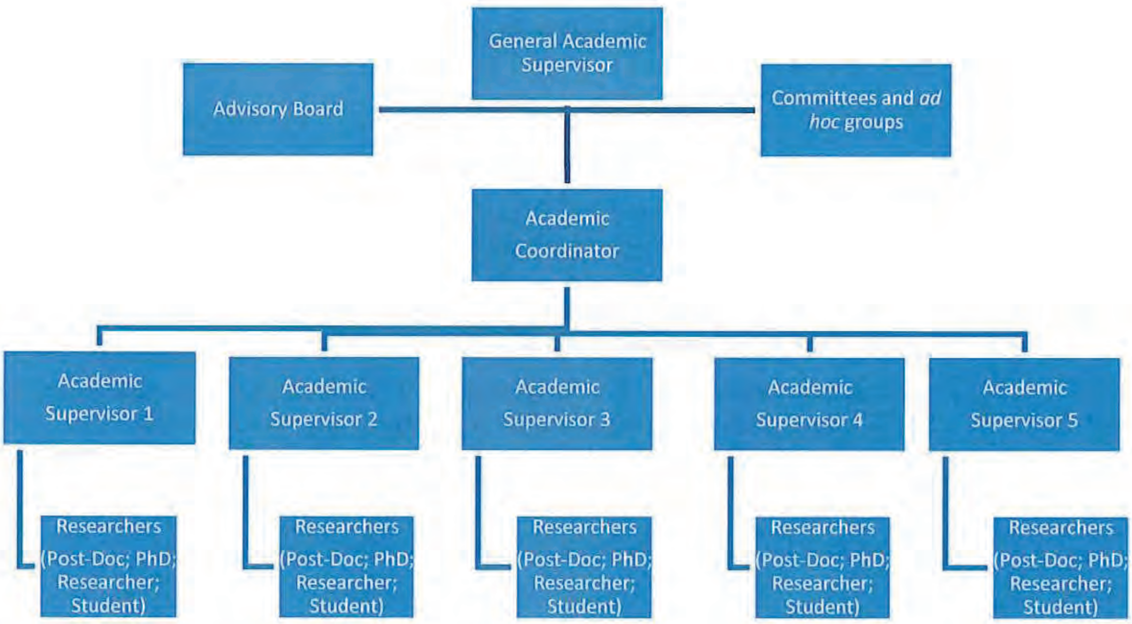
Acts as the project's link to society in the form of subcommittees, working/brainstorming groups formed by representatives of the project's partners and other persons with interest in the project. They can suggest topics for research, give technical input on research questions and on potential recommendations for tax policy issues. However, the results and conclusions of the Research may not be influenced by the interests and wishes of the committees and ad hoc groups. The suggestions and input of these bodies are non-binding to the General Academic Supervisor and they do not have competence over decisions regarding the research methods and outputs. The committees and ad hoc groups, as well as their members, may come in and out of the project at different phases.

CPT Project Governance Structure



(4) SCOPE

The Research to be conducted as a consequence of this agreement will focus in general on how the tax system should be designed and structured for a society primarily based on Cashless Payment Methods, Online Platforms and Digital Technologies, such as artificial intelligence (AI) and blockchain. See annex C for the CPT Project Research Program. In general, the research in the CPT project is divided in three blocks: Cashless, Online Platforms and Technology.

The Specific Topics to be researched under this agreement fall under the 'Online platform block'. Research will be conducted into the taxation of the digital economy, with particular attention to the tax treatment of online platforms. This implies assessing how countries across the globe (and especially the EU) are dealing with platform businesses and how should prospective tax regimes be design in order to exploit the benefits and overcome the challenges posed by a platform-based society.

The broader objective of this research collaboration is to make an academic contribution to EU policy debates on the tax treatment of online platforms to strengthen the visibility and understanding of the complex issues arising in this area amongst policymakers and the society at large.

(5) DECLARATION OF SCIENTIFIC INDEPENDENCE

In order to strengthen the independent nature of the Research to be conducted as a consequence of this contract, the Parties agree that all Academic supervisors, coordinators and (partner) researchers involved in the CPT project will sign a Declaration of Scientific Independence before starting to conduct the Research, which will expressly acknowledge that:

- The structure of the research shall not be geared towards producing the desired outcome for the Collaborative Partner of the CPT project.
- Remuneration and other tokens of appreciation shall never depend on the outcome or interpretation of the Research.
- The results of scientific research shall be published in independent journals irrespective of whether they are favorable to the Collaborative Partner.
- The CPT project (and website) will always be mentioned in CPT researchers publications.
- Relevant interests and/or advisory relations of the researcher(s) shall be cited in publications and other forms of disclosure.

Onderwerp
Europese ondernemingsbelastingen

Geacht college,

Hierbij wend ik mij tot u met het verzoek om de bijzondere leerstoel Europese Ondernemingsbelastingen, die wordt bekleed door prof. dr. Dennis Weber, te wijzigen in een gewone leerstoel.

De hierboven genoemde bijzondere leerstoel ([redacted]fte) is sinds 2008 ingesteld aan de FdR vanwege de Stichting Loyens & Loeff European (Tax) Law Support Fund. Prof. Weber had sinds 2006 tevens een [redacted] als ud ([redacted]fte). De toenmalige voorzitter van de leerstoelgroep Belastingrecht heeft in 2008 het verzoek ingediend om prof. Weber met terugwerkende kracht (2006) te benoemen tot hoogleraar ([redacted]fte), waarbij de stichting voor [redacted]fte bijdraagt in de kosten van de leerstoel. Hierin heeft destijds de directeur bedrijfsvoering bewilligd zonder de bijzondere leerstoel te wijzigen in een gewone leerstoel. De faculteit wenst de ontstane situatie nu te formaliseren.

De (bijzondere) leerstoel is ondergebracht bij de leerstoelgroep Belastingrecht waarvan het onderzoek deel uitmaakt van het Amsterdam Center for Tax Law (ACTL), de onderzoeksgroep waar – in een van de zwaartepuntgroepen - onderzoek wordt verricht naar de vraag in hoeverre Europese belastingwetgeving de van oorsprong nationale wetgeving beïnvloedt. Prof. Weber is directeur van dit instituut en is belangrijk voor het onderzoek en onderwijs, maar vervult ook een belangrijke rol bij de internationale profilering van het instituut. De faculteit acht zijn functioneren van grote waarde voor de fiscale opleidingen (Ba en Ma) en voor de faculteit.

fdr16u009

Graag wil ik de kwestie oplossen door de reeds bestaande situatie te formaliseren: de bijzondere leerstoel wordt een gewone leerstoel, die voor [redacted] fte wordt bekostigd door de boven genoemde stichting. Jaarlijks wordt een bedrag bij de stichting gedeclareerd.

Als bijlagen voeg ik een verslag van werkzaamheden toe. Vanzelfsprekend ben ik bereid mijn verzoek nader toe te lichten.

Met vriendelijke groet,

[redacted]

M.Y.A. Zieck,
waarnemend decaan

2. De doelstelling van de leerstoel is onderzoek doen en onderwijs geven op het terrein van de invloed van EG-recht op de nationale ondernemingsbelastingen en de wenselijkheid en vorm van gehele of gedeeltelijke harmonisatie van de Europese ondernemingsbelastingen.

3. De leeropdracht voor de leerstoel is geformuleerd in de bijlage bij deze overeenkomst.

4. De subsidie (onder 1.) wordt uitsluitend aangewend voor het in stand houden van de leerstoel en het ontplooien van activiteiten die daarmee nauw verband houden. De subsidie wordt telkens per kwartaal vooraf uitgekeerd.

5. De decaan van de faculteit waar de leerstoel is gepositioneerd draagt bestuurlijk en inhoudelijk de verantwoordelijkheid voor de leerstoel en is uit dien hoofde verantwoordelijk voor de activiteiten die in het kader van de leeropdracht warden uitgevoerd.

6. De leerstoel wordt bezet door een hoogleraar. De universiteit creeert hiervoor [redacted] formatieruimte (fte), wat neerkomt op [redacted] van de volledige werktijd. De hoogleraar heeft een dienstverband met de universiteit en wordt tewerkgesteld bij de Faculteit der Rechtsgeleerdheid (verder: "de faculteit"). Functioneel verricht de hoogleraar zijn wetenschappelijke activiteiten binnen de leerstoelgroep Belastingrecht.

10. Met de overlegging van een financieel verslag legt de decaan jaarlijks aan het curatorium verantwoording af voor de uitgaven.

11. De universiteit staat niet in voor de bruikbaarheid van de resultaten van de activiteiten in het kader van deze overeenkomst, noch voor de gevolgen van het gebruik van die resultaten.

12. De Stichting Loyens & Loeff European (Tax) Law Support Fund heeft de mogelijkheid de rechten op de resultaten, gegenereerd en / of verworven door de hoogleraar of de universiteit bij de uitvoering van de werkzaamheden in eigendom te verkrijgen onder nader overeen te komen voorwaarden binnen zes maanden na melding door de hoogleraar.

Slagen partijen er niet in een oplossing te vinden, dan is elk van hen gerechtigd deze overeenkomst per direct door middel van een aangetekend schrijven te beeindigen.

16. Ingeval van faillissement of surseance van betaling van een der partijen is de andere partij gerechtigd deze overeenkomst door middel van een aangetekend schrijven met onmiddellijke ingang te beeindigen, zonder dat hij daardoor schadeplichtig wordt ten opzichte van de andere partij. Beeindiging op deze grond leidt voor de opzeggende partij niet tot schadeplichtigheid ten opzichte van de wederpartij .

17. De universiteit stuurt aan het begin van het jaar een factuur voor het voorafgaande jaar aan de Stichting Loyens & Loeff European (Tax) Law Support Fund ter grootte van een bedrag van € 22.900, zijnde het in artikel 1 genoemde bedrag.

18. In het voorlaatste jaar van de periode waarvoor deze afspraken zijn gemaakt zal de leerstoel door het curatorium worden geevalueerd. Bij positieve evaluatie zullen de Stichting Loyens & Loeff European (Tax) Law Support Fund en de universiteit overleg plegen over het al dan niet voortzetten van de subsidiering door de Stichting Loyens & Loeff European (Tax) Law Support Fund na 1 mei 2021.

19. De uit deze overeenkomst voortvloeiende rechten en plichten zijn voor geen der partijen overdraagbaar.

20. Eventuele geschillen over deze overeenkomst leggen partijen voor aan een ad hoc te vormen College van Arbiters. Seide partijen wijzen een lid van het College van Arbiters aan, welk lid geen relatie heeft met de desbetreffende partij. De beide leden wijzen in overleg een onafhankelijke derde aan als voorzitter aan. Het aldus gevormde College van Arbiters beslist bij meerderheid van stemmen over het gerezen geschil. Het besluit is voor partijen bindend.

21. Deze overeenkomst treedt in werking op 1 mei 2016. De overeenkomst wordt aangegaan voor een periode van vijf jaar en eindigt derhalve van rechtswege op 1 mei 2021.
